To the People of the District of Columbia.

Under the celebrated Virginia Claret, superior to any in the market, because the grapes are grown in the climate where we live; this is a natural cause to prove that the wine is most healthy for you.

1. Because they are made under my own supervision and I can guarantee the wine pure and of the grape.

2. Because the wine is made from rich, ripe grapes, carefully selected, and no artificial matter used. With the exception of twenty years I can now give the public a wine that cannot be excelled.

3. Because these wines are stored in my own vaults and I have only experienced men employed to handle and care for these wines.

4. Because the demand for pure Virginia wine has increased so much that now these wines lead the market for pure wines.

5. Because analysis have shown that these wines contain less alcohol and more iron than any other wine in the market.

6. Because these wines are made in a special vineyard that grows the healthiest Virginia grapes to grow grapes. The soil is adapted especially for grapes growing in the highest types of grapes for wine making.

7. Because all my wines are three years old and thoroughly matured before they are bottled.

Remember, the Virginia wines for our climate.

Respectfully,
 C. W. NIXON,
 407 7th St. N. W.

Extra Good Grapes in White Dress Goods.

Mr. W. D. Clark, the senior partner of the popular dry goods establishment, 303 and 305 Pennsylvania Avenue Northwest, has just returned from New York, where he has been for several days taking in the great metropolitan sights of interest in the great metropolis of Gotham. He was staying in the hotel near the door this morning when he accepted the carriage by calling on the ladies from New York and combined business with pleasure in purchasing some extra good bargains in White Dress Goods.

He purchased simply because they were reasonable and desirable and at greatly reduced prices. They are principally of the India Linen, beautiful Plumes, handsome Plaid, White Muslins, etc. The ladies are invited to call at once and examine these exquisite and reasonable textures. The prices will astonish you. They are so low.

HOME AGAIN.

The Presidential Parties Return From Their Centennial Celebration.

At 10:45 o'clock last night the Presidential train, with Mr. Harrison, his Cabinet and a score of correspondents on board, rolled into the Baltimore and Potomac Station. It left Jersey City at 5 o'clock in the afternoon, and the journey was quick and pleasant. But few people were at the depot to get a farewell glimpse of the President. Just after leaving Philadelphia supper was served in the dining car Continental, and after the President and his party had been satisfied the car was given up to the correspondents, who partook of a splendid dinner, and did not finish until the arrival of the train in this city. During the banquet speeches were made by Secretaries Proctor and Rusk and Postmaster-General Wamamaker. The latter said that he was quite sure if he had not gone in the dry goods business he would have been a newspaper man, and promised that the sickly green stamp should be changed to a vivid red, if the correspondents said so. At all of the stations along the route large crowds assembled and cheered the train as it rushed by.

Upon the arrival in Washington the President immediately entered his carriage and was driven to the White House, where Dr. Scott and Mrs. Scott were waiting him. Nearly all the ladies who accompanied the party to New York remained in the city. Mrs. Harrison and Mrs. McKee were given a dinner last evening by Mr. Whitelaw Reid, and on Friday Mr. Elliott F. Shepard will entertain them. Mrs. Harrison will be the guest of Mrs. Morton during her stay in New York. Secretary Noble remained in the city to attend the Spanish-American banquet, and Secretary Tracy and Attorney-General Miller will attend the banquet to the Justices of the Supreme Court.

The secretary of the association is to keep all obtainable information about Southern mills, the number of mills, spindles and looms, the yearly output, etc.

"WEATHER PERMITTING."

The Long-looked-for Game of the Diamond and Clubs.

The game between the reporters and the policemen will be played at 4:15 this afternoon, weather permitting, and it promises to permit. Nearly 500 persons who had congregated at the park were disappointed Tuesday by the necessary postponement of the game, but this beautiful day and the pre-eminently scientific contest expected will doubtless attract an immense crowd. The nine which will face each other are practically the same as published in Monday's Critic with the exception of the substitution of Harries for Lerner. There has been one change in the policemen's club. Casey won't pitch. A report of the great game will be published in to-day's extra Critic.

TO THE MUSIC OF FIFTEEN DRUM.

Our Soldier Boys Back From Their Centennial Trip.

The last company of Washington troops taking part in the centennial ceremonies at New York marched up the avenue this morning. Most of the organizations returned yesterday, among them the Corcoran Cadets, Union Veterans and Postoffice Guards. The Washington Light Infantry were the first to get back, and tramped up to their armory yesterday morning before most of the Washington people were out of bed. Colonel Moore was enthusiastic in his remarks on the parade in New York, and was much gratified at the reception the troops received. Last evening at 8 o'clock the Columbia Rifles of Georgetown arrived. On the same train were a number of companies from the West. They stopped for half an hour in the city, and some of the soldier boys took a brief stroll on the Avenue.
